

Was Daniel Spangler and Michael Spengler brothers?

1. Daniel Spangler born 1716 ca, died Nov. 3, 1787. Legend says Daniel was in failing health and died suddenly while serving on jury duty in Franklin County, Va. It is said that he was buried in Pigg River Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery¹ located five miles south of Calloway, Va. on State Route 750 between State Routes 751 and 640. No marker is known to exist.

RootsWeb Ancestry.com World Connect project genealogies that show Daniel was a son of Jacob and Elizabeth Stophell is mythology based on Jacob's will which reads:

February the 5th Anno Domini 1756 Jacob Spengler of Allsace Township and County of Berks hath made his last Will and faith in the Presence of the subscribing Wittness, as followeth--That his only son George Christopher Spengler who helped (a word or two missing).... be it what Denomination it will ..(a word missing).... and Personal. Except only that the Heir shall give unto his Mother Elisabeth Spengler for her suport during her Life Yearly (in case she does not dwell with him) 14 Bushels of Wheat, 50 Pounds of Pork, 20 of Beef, 40 shillings in currancy and the of cows but he shall keep said cows at his own charge. The Things above said George Christian Spengler shall give unto his Mother Elisabeth Spengler for her maintenance and further that my son shall give one cow and calf unto my Deceased Daughter's Child Elizabeth Wise (?) by name and that when she is married. which I myself signed by my own hand before Witness.

Married Mary Nofsinger (Naftzger, Naffziger, Nofziger, Noftsinger, Noffsinger, Nofsinger, Naufsinger), born 1720, died 1818. Headstone (field stone) inscription reads MARY SPANGLER DIED 1820 Age 100 yrs. (Her will was probated in Montgomery County, Va. Jun. 18, 1818) Buried PINE CREEK CHURCH CEMETERY, Floyd County, Va. PINE CREEK CHURCH CEMETERY is located approximately 1 1/2 miles west of US Route 221 on Spangler's Mill road (State Route 682) in Floyd, County, Va. Mary was one of the first Spanglers in Floyd County, Va. Her maiden name of Nofsinger is mythology and not documented as far as I know.

I have been searching for almost a half century to backtrack Daniel and Mary but to no avail. I have looked at court records, land deeds, church records and many other sources including most of the genealogies for Daniel and Mary as a couple and individually on the RootsWeb World Connect website as well as in the LDS submitter data base. I have found serious discrepancies and numerous factual errors in these sources. My recommendation is that one should uses data from these sources as clues as to where to look and not accept it as factual until proven..

Family folklore (mythology) says Daniel came to America from Germany and spent seven years as an indentured servant to pay for his passage. Using the birth date for Daniel, Jr., (bible record) as 1747 places Daniel and Mary's marriage at 1745/46. Assuming marriage at the completion of his seven years as an indentured servant puts his arrival in America at about 1737/38. Rupp's 30,000 Immigrants book shows a Hans Michael Spengler on a list of 105 of 318 passengers on the ship Samuel arriving at Philadelphia Aug 30, 1737. The World Connect genealogy referenced says Hans Michael arrived in Philadelphia on August 21, 1737. Rupp shows only one ship arriving at Philadelphia on Aug. 21, 1750 – only a minor difference in dates.

Also interesting is that Michael Spengler is the last name on Rupp's abbreviated list of passengers on the ship Samuel. Is it possible that Daniel Spangler and Michael Spengler were brothers?

My ggg grandfather was Benton Goodson, s/o Samuel & Sarah. I found them living in Raleigh Co.,in the 1860 census. But something happened to them before 1870. The family was split up, I found Floyd Goodson, brother of Benton on a Graham farm, working as a laborer. And I cant find a trace of the rest of the family, until 1880. On the 1880 census, for kanawha Co.,WV.,Benton is living with his mothers sister. Jacob Spangler and Ruth (Graham) Spangler, from Floyd Co. Benton is 21, and listed as their nephew. Are their any Goodsons, related to this family still around in Floyd Co.? If so, I and my grandmother, would dearly love to correspond with them! Thank You for any help in this matter! You can contact me at zyndyne@hotmail.com

Mrs. Whitlock Dead

Mrs. Sarah Whitlock, an aged lady, who made her home with her son, W. L. Whitlock, near Spangler's Mill, was found dead in her bed Friday morning. She had been in declining health for several years. The family was up with her until midnight, and, they retired and when they awoke found that she had died sometime after midnight. She was about 78 years of age and was well known.

Her funeral was preached by Elders Spangler and Bowman, after which she was laid to rest in the Spangler burying ground in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends, which attested to the high esteem in which she was held.

She leaves several children, grandchildren, and a host of relatives to mourn her death. Peace to her ashes.

1.1.7 Jacob Spangler born 1799 in Botetourt County, VA. (This area next became Montgomery Co. and is now Floyd County, Virginia.) Probably relocated to Warren (Coffee) County Tennessee about 1825 as evidenced by:

The other beginning on white oak standing on north side of branch running thence east 126 poles to white oak on West "boundary line of above named survey (may be the line of John Lemons and John Morgan) thence north with said line 63 3/4- poles to post oak, thence west 126 to stake, thence south 63 3/4 poles to beginning. The ----- granted to Jacob Spangler by the State of Tenn. under prov. of act of General Assembly of Tenn. 1823.

Married Lydia Layman (Lemmons) on 11 February 1830 born 19 September 1811 in Montgomery County, Virginia; died August 1844. (From the April 2003 issue of Tennessee Ancestors, published by the East Tennessee Historical Society.)

A letter written August 14, 1842 by Jacob's brother Daniel in Coffee County, Tennessee states that "Brother Jacob moved off". From other records we know that Jacob settled in Missouri. We also find him in the 1840 census of Missouri.

Children: (This is a guess based on the Barry County MO Census 1840 and Coffee County, TN Census 1860)

- (1) Jacob Westley (abt 1835-____)
- (2) Isaac Henderson (abt 1839-____)

It also appears that Lydia married J. R. Vernor and had two more children born between 1840 and 1844 when she died in Tennessee. Did Jacob die in Missouri after the 1840 Census and Lydia return with the children to Tennessee where her mother, a brother and 4 sisters still lived?

Is the 120 acres in Barry County, Missouri mention in J.R Vernor's will the land once owned by Jacob Spangler? This proceeds from the sale of this land was to be divided equally among Lydia's four children and J. R. Vernor's children (probably by a previous marriage) were not included in the proceeds from the sale of this land. From these facts I suspect Jacob had died in Missouri after the 1840 census was taken and before 1843.

To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas: Jacob Spangler, of Barry County, Missouri has deposited in the General Land Office of the United Sates, a Certificate of the Register of the Land office at Springfield whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said Jacob Spangler according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act of making further provision for the sale of Public Lands," for The North half of the Southwest Quarter of Section Twenty Eight, in Township twenty eight, of Range twenty six West, in the district of Lands subject to sale at Springfield, Missouri, containing eighty acres According the official plat of the survey of the said lands, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said Jacob Spangler.

Now know ye, that the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress in such case made and provided, Have given and Granted, and by the presents do give and grant unto the said Jacob Spangler and to his heirs, the said tract above described: to have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities, and appurtenances of whatsoever nature, thereunto belonging, unto the said Jacob Spangler and his heirs and assigns forever.

Children with J.R. Vernor:

(3) Elizabeth Melonly (____ - ____)
(4) Liddia Sarah Malvina (1844-____)

Lidy Varner 6 appears in Warren County, TN in 1850. She was with James Whitlock 60 and Mary 58. In 1860 Lydia Varner is with Jo Hall 55 and Elizabeth 35 in Coffee County. Her mother must have died about the time she was born. The part of the census she was in 1850 was taken on November 19.

Another part of the puzzle. In his will J. R. Vernor mentions "120 acres of land in Barry County, Mo. on Spring River. This is the same area where Jacob Spangler shows up in the 1840 Census of Missouri! It appears from his will that J. R. Vernor died in 1849 or early in 1850.

Jacob's Land Patent for 80 acres in Barry County, Missouri is shown below. It was issued September 10, 1844 and recorded March 21, 1845. I don't know how the illegal system would have worked then but I am assuming that Jacob had made application and purchased the land sometime prior to 1844 and probably died before the paperwork was issued and the land went to his heirs which were his minor children and his wife.

Warren County, TN Will Book 3

pg 20-21. 16 Mar 1845. Will of J.R. Vernor (Verner, Varner]. I, John R. Vernor, do make and publish this as my last will and testament. First, I direct that my funeral expenses and debts be paid. Secondly, I desire that all my stock and household furniture be sold at public sale. Thirdly, if the above is not sufficient to pay my debts I desire that my two tracts of land on Hickory Creek be sold privately, if possibly. Fourthly, I desire that "the proceeds of two beds and furniture go to my two children by Lydda Spangloc [to wit], Elizabeth Melonly and Liddia Sarah Malvina Vernor" the money to be put at compound interest until they become or age or marry. Fifthly, I desire that the rent on the land on Barren Fork (Tennessee) where Lydia Verner died (died August 1844) be appropriated to raise and educate her children "Isaac Henderson, Jacob Westly Spanglor (sic) and Elizabeth A. Melante and Lydia Sarah Malvina Vernor" (sic), sixthly, the 166 acres on Barren Fork where Lyddia Verner died and also 120 acres of land in Barry County, Mo. on Spring River be divided between "Eliz. A. Melante Lyddia Sarah Malvina Verner and Isaac Henderson and Jacob Westly Spangler" when they become of age. 7thly, two fifths of my Hickory Creek lands to go to my two sons Bloomfield Henry and James Perry Verner to be put on compound interest, and if Bloomfield never returns, the two-fifths to go to James when he comes of age. "Isaiah Low took Mary Angeline to raise and promised to make her equal to the rest of his children, but should the said Low turn Mary Angline off without doing for her the child's part/ then she shall come in with my other daughters Matilda Adeline and Lucinda Martha Verner of the balance of the proceeds of my Hickory Creek lands". Lucinda Martha is to have $21.00 in sundry tools sold to her husband Kincheon Hawking, Matilda Adeline and Mary Angeline are to be made equal to Drucilla Martha. I appoint John Lemmons and Isaiah Starkey my executors. Witnessed B.K. Snips and Hardy Riggs. Proved 7 Jan 1850.

1.1.7.1 Jacob Westley Spangler

1850 Tennessee Census - Wisley or more than likely Wesley was living in Cannon County in household # 38 with Sanders Brown 25, and his wife Mary 24. They had two children. Wesley was 10 and born in Tennessee. Daniel Spangler is in household 62. He and Elizabeth are in their 60's and had Milly and Disa and her husband and child living with them. Samuel Spangler is in household 59 and he has his wife four daughters and a brother-in-law living with him. David Spangler is 24 married with a one year old son in household 95. George Spangler is over in Warren County and he and his wife are in their 60's with three daughters and three Bolin Children living with him. So this possibly could be Jacob's son but there is no Isaac listed in the 1850 census in Tennessee. Possibly he was farmed out to another family.

1.1.7.2 Isaac Henderson (Henry) Spangler was born 12 SEP 1837 in Morrison , Warren County, Tennessee, and died 12 JAN 1912 in Siloam Springs, Benton County Arkansas.

Isaac Spangler 21 appears in Coffee County, TN in the 1860 census. He was with the family of Red Brown and listed as a farm hand. In 1870 he is in Warren County, TN and listed as Isaac H. Spangler 30. He is with Jacob Allison and is a merchant. This is the only Isaac Henderson that shows up in the 1880 Census that meets all the information on Jacob Spangler's son. Only four with this name showed up in the total U.S. Census. I can find no Jacob that meets the information.

Married Martha Susan Stubblefield 14 AUG 1871 in Bedford County, Tennessee, daughter of Commodore Perry Stubblefield and Nancy Davis. She was born 12 JUN 1846 in Pickens County, South Carolina, and died 27 SEP 1928 in Ponomia , California. She was buried in Panoma , California.

Page: From the Henderson Armstead Spangler obituary in the Jul 12, 1928 edition

On the 13th day of June, 1928, the death angel came and claimed for it's victim my dear husband, Henderson Armstead Spangler. He was born in Floyd county Va., on the 10th day of Aug., 1849, making his stay 78 years, ten months, and 3 days. His father was David Spangler, his mother was Amelia Boothe, and he was married to Lydia M. Conner, in 1870. He was the father of 10 children. Those surviving are; Mrs. Amos Martin, Mrs. Archie Sowers, Mrs. Andy Martin, Mrs. Roscoe Lampey, Mrs. Noah Moore, and one son Jacob Spangler, all of Floyd county, Va. Those preceeding him to the grave are Mary Ellen Martin, Nancy Maude Blackwell, Noah C. Spangler, and Matthew Spangler.

He was an excellent provider for his family, a loving husband, kind and tender father, loyal citizen and always met you with a smile until he lost his mind which was about 21 years ago. He joined the Primitive Baptist church in 1903. We may feel that he is in the paradise of God and and out of his miserable affliction as he seemed to weary very much about his condition, but he will be missed by all.

On the evening of the 13th, ther was an electric storm. He was standing in the door just after the storm. I passed him and he asked me where I had been. I told him I had been lying on the bed. I then went out in the yard, had been there but a short time until I heard him groaning. I went as quick as I could to him, found him lying on the floor. I had no one to aid me, so I rang the dinner bell for our son, Jacob who called on the telephone for help. Then I put a pillow under his head and gave him a dose of painking. Just then Jacob came in and we lay him on the bed. He was wet from perspiration with hand and feet cold. We tryed to warm them but could not get them warm. He called for water and something to eat. He drank some water and coffee but would not eat anything else. We thought he was better and so we went to bed. Then about two o'clock, he made several groans and was gone. On the next day the funeral was preached and he was layed to rest in the family burial grounds on the place amidst a host of relatives and friends. Written by his loving wife, Lydia M. Spangler

Spangler, James, informant (Friend).

When James Spangler was about eight years old he was visiting his sister's house. She had children about his age. They were playing in the front of the house when a group of Union Cavalry came up, possibly to water their horses, rest, etc. As they left the Captain reached down and grabbed James by the scuff of his neck and road off with him. He was returned to the same spot as the unit was going home after the war was over in 1865. Research as I might, I cannot find any record of this but it was well remembered by several people my great-aunt knew when she was little who were there. His account was that they were in Tennessee and Georgia (and possibly Kentucky) during the time when they road into battle the Captain would put James on his horse in front of him so that he wouldn't be shot. Many times they were in engagements and he heard the Confederates yell, "Don't shoot the Captain, he has a boy with him!"

What I have recounted here is virtually 100% of his Civil War experiences that anyone I knew who knew him ever heard him say.

Once James' children were grown and his wife died, he would put everything he wanted to travel with in a knapsack and walk from the house of one of his children to the other, staying a few months at a time then moving on. They said it was all very low key; you knew he was leaving whenhe came down to breakfast with his knapsack and off he'd go. He'd show up at the next place 100 miles distant, perhaps a couple of years from when he'd last been there, just like he'd been outside on the porch for less than 10 minutes. His thing was firewood and until the day he died he kept them in logs wherever he stayed. In fact, he was at the farm where my father was when he died; had the axe over his head to chop, presumeably had a heart attack in mid stroke and fell straight back. He is buried in a small cemetery several miles east of Lynchburg among many of his grandchildren. Vern Conner, Orlando, Florida -- April 6, 1999

> Joann, I think you're right on about the John Martin who married Nancy Spangler being the son of John Martin Sr. (At least he's from that family. Hugh Martin should have named a son John, too, I would think.) DO you happen to have the Will Book Number and page number from the Will below of this John Martin? He sure didn't help things by not naming people, did he?

As I was going through my notes I came across another will that I copied from the Franklin County Will Books for John Martin. It didn't help me much at the time, because John gave very few names. After the information you sent me however, I believe it is the will of John Martin husband of Nancy Spangler and son of John Martin, who died around 1813.>

>> The will was dated 28th May 1818. David Dickenson was one of the witnesses. The first part of the will is hard to make out, but refers to the selling of his slaves. Then it says "Secondly, as my wife has a Brothere and some other friends residing in the State of Georgia, it is probable she may have a desire to remove there or elsewhere, if that should be the case, it is my Will and Desire that the track of Land whereon I new reside may be sold and the money arising therfrom maybe approproated in any manneer that my Executors may think most beneficial to my family. Thirdly, It is wish that my Executors shall amke a talte to John Johnson for a small tract of land sold him upon his making payment for the same,...Lastly I appoint my friend John Burwll and Richard Taliaferro (?) of the above named County andState, likewise Andrew Malloy and John Houston of Morgan County Georgia my Executors. I have merely named the Gentlemen residing in Georgia as my Executors in case my wife should remove from Virginia. If that should be the case the executors there nust give a complete account to those ???in this state before the Estate ??? In the case that my wife should marry again and it should appear to my Executors that the property is in a fair way to be wasted, it is my wishe and desire that my Executors should sell off on third of the estate for her use and the balance be under the control of my Executors until my Children become of age or marry. It is my wish and desire that my Executors may ???portion of the property such as they may think the situation of the Estate may justify of my land shoulds be sold as above specified. I herby give my Executors full power, to make complet and ful title to the purchaser. thereof. Signed John Martin

>> As I examined the evidence of the Robert Martins, I wonder if Robert Martin married to Susannah Robertson, is the son of James not Hugh. Since from their wills they both died in Franklin, I believe this is the Robert on the Tax List and the Census List. I propose that Robert Martin that married Susannah Ray is the son of Hugh and possibly removed to Georgia with him.

>> If this is so, then my Susie was probably neither of the above. The stories handed down was that Mary Martin died leaving a small daughter Martha Ferguson who was raised my her grandmother Susie Martin of Franklin Virginia. JoAnn
